

Documenting Daily Life in Indonesia

Sep 26, 2019 | Richard Newstead

Yasser Chalid loves telling stories of human connection focusing mainly on capturing milestones and moments to be cherished by his subjects. Working closely with our Creative team he naturally gravitates to illustrating his family's life in North Sumatra, Indonesia. This ongoing series allows us to glimpse tender, everyday moments between mother and son, evoking the joys of childhood and parenting with a real sense of warmth.

Getty Images Creative is dedicated to telling human stories from all corners of the world by seeking and supporting regional creators and their content and bringing the best of that content to our clients.
