

Pet Levity

Jan 10, 2019 | Jane Perovich

After completing his hard-hitting book of portraits of young women living with Cystic Fibrosis, SaltyGirls, Canadian photographer Ian Ross Pettigrew (also living with CF), felt a new project with some levity might be in order. Mellow dogs and geckos gently floating in custom-fitted harnesses (“I tried one cat and that was a disaster”), against the warm, pastel palette of their balloons and backgrounds make this charming ‘Floating’ series hard to resist. We dare you not to smile.
